

PROSPECT BASEBALL SPONSORHIP

Prospect Baseball, Inc., is a 501(c)3 Texas not-for-profit corporation has been established to operate baseball leagues, select baseball tournaments and youth teams that compete at the highest levels. Through high quality instruction and competition that emphasis skill development and understanding the correct way to play the game we hope to develop players that can pursue their dreams being successful high school players, of playing baseball beyond High School and become quality young me who maintain a love of the game. Prospect Park is our home fields that are used for tournaments and team practices. Prospect Park is located at 10185 Braun Rd. in Helotes just outside of 1604.

Our goal at Prospect Baseball is to provide all players with the skills to play at a high level the opportunity to participate in our program. As such, to help offset the costs associated with coaching, tournament entry fees, uniforms, etc. Prospect Baseball requests your financial assistance in supporting our youth baseball program. Your assistance can be to our general fund that we will use to assist individual players whose families have a financial need in participating in our program or it can be designated for the assistance of a specific player.
